

Modern Language Association (MLA) - Works Cited Page

Your last name and page # go on every page, like this:

Smith 8

Center and capitalize

1 inch
Works Cited

Alphabetize the entries

Berger, Andy. "All in His Head." Discover Magazine, vol. 37, no. 5, Kalmach Publishing, June 2016, pp. 26-31.

Bieber, Justin. First Step 2 Forever: My Story. HarperCollins, 2010, p. 71.

"Formatting a Research Paper." MLA Style Center, Modern Language Association of America, style.mla.org/formatting-papers/.

Kardashian, Kim, et al. Kardashian Confidential. St. Martin's P, 2010, p. 59.

King, Stephen. On. Scribner, 2000, p. 73.

MLA Handbook, 8th ed. Modern Language Association of America, 2016.

Watkins, Randy. "Is Google Making Us Dumber?" Distance Learning, Information Age

Publishing, December 2015. Student Resources in Context, Gale Group,

ic.galegroup.com/ic/suic/AcademicJournalsDetailsPage/AcademicJournalsDetailsWindow?failOverType=&query=&prodId=SUIC&>windowstate=normal&contentModules=&display-query=&mode=view&displayGroupName=Journals&limiter=&u=plea12880&currPage=&disableHighlighting=true&displayGroups=&sortBy=&source=Topic&search_within_results=&p=SUIC&action=e&catId=&activityType=&scanId=&documentId=GALE|A437059711

umentId=GALE|A437059711.

1 inch

Use et al. when there are 3+ authors

"p" stands for "Press"

Works Cited page is a separate sheet placed after the last page of your essay.

Include full urls to assist the reader in locating the online source.

Double-space the entire page.

Use a standard font style such as Times New Roman 12 pt. for formal essays.